Congratulate your child on reading progress with these fun coupons. Print them out and fill them in with your child's favorite things. Give out a coupon for milestones like reciting the alphabet, learning a new word, or reading a book.

IDEAS:

Perhaps your child has just read about something that you can visit in real life, like a park, museum, or zoo.

IDEAS:

Who does your child love to read with? Write in someone like a neighbor, relative, older sibling, or, of course, you!

IDEAS:

Learning to read can be hard, and your child deserves something special, like ice cream, pizza, or home-made cookies
